

Todd Carney

2 Za'abeel, Sky Gardens #2613, Dubai, United Arab Emirates | tearney@jd21.law.harvard.edu | 847-612-6526

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School, J.D., cum laude, May 2021

Honors: Chayes Fellowship; Heyman Fellowship; Four Dean's Scholars Awards; The Dean's Award for Community Leadership; Recognized for performing more than 1,000 hours of pro bono work

Activities: Lawfare, Contributor; Harvard International Law Journal, Line Editor

American University, B.A., summa cum laude in Public Communications and Political Science, May 2013

EXPERIENCE

K&L Gates, Dubai, UAE

International Arbitration Associate, October 2023-Present

Analyze arbitration contracts and relevant laws to advise clients on their options in an arbitration and what strategy to pursue. Draft reports on international and domestic law to inform the clients on how they should advocate their position.

European Court of Human Rights, Strasbourg, FR

Law Clerk for the Honorable Ivana Jelić, September 2022-September 2023

Assisted the Court in enforcing a major human rights convention concerning Europe by drafting opinions and interpreting relevant precedent regarding potential violations of the convention. Advised judges and senior staff on the impact of international institutions like the International Court of Justice. Reported on trends in international and European law.

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, Washington, DC

Law Clerk for the Honorable Liam P. Hardy, June 2021-July 2022

Assessed petitions to recommend if the Judge should hear a case. Drafted several opinions and edited all the opinions that the Court put out. Provided the Judge with in-depth bench memos that covered all the case law and party arguments.

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, Oklahoma City, OK (conducted remotely)

Intern for the Honorable Robert E. Bacharach, May 2021

Edited the Judge's opinions and drafted petition responses. Conducted legal research for the Judge to use in cases.

U.S. Department of Justice, National Security Division, Washington, DC (conducted remotely)

Intern, January-May 2021

Researched statutes on cross-border crimes. Drafted legal arguments concerning economic espionage, with a particular focus on cases from Asia. Advised on attorneys on the application of the international agreements to the cases at hand.

Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization, Brussels, BE (conducted remotely)

Intern, May-August 2020

Drafted motions and amici curiae for international courts such as the Inter-American Court of Human Rights. Advised marginalized groups in Asia and Latin America on how to assert their legal rights under domestic and international law.

U.S. Department of State, Washington, DC (conducted remotely)

Intern, September 2019-June 2020

Briefed the Ambassador-at-Large of the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons on existing international legal mechanisms to fight human trafficking. Wrote a report on how to best use international law to stop forced labor.

European Parliament, Brussels, BE

Intern, January 2020

Wrote reports for senior legal staff on the latest legislative developments regarding economic agreements.

Missouri Solicitor General, Jefferson City, MO

Summer Intern, Summer 2019

Drafted legal arguments for attorneys to use in court and formally corresponded with expert witnesses on behalf of the office.

BAR ADMISSIONS

Admitted to practice, District of Columbia, January 2022

LANGUAGES

Spanish – Intermediate, French – Intermediate

PERSONAL

Enjoy travel (visited 78 countries), going to Broadway shows, and volunteering. Obtained rank of Eagle Scout.