King & Spalding

International Arbitration Practice

Global Arbitration Review ranked King & Spalding as the top international arbitration practice worldwide in its 2020 "GAR 30" guide, noting that "King & Spalding built its name on results."

Global Leader in International Arbitration

King & Spalding's international arbitration practice is consistently recognized as one of the leading practices in the world in both commercial and investment arbitration—a reputation we have earned through creative strategic thinking, meticulous preparation, effective advocacy and demonstrated results.

Independent legal directories that rank law firms based on client feedback, including Chambers, The Legal 500, Global Arbitration Review and Who's Who Legal, regularly report on our technical know-how, client responsiveness and results-oriented practice.

In the international commercial arbitration arena, we have represented clients in scores of corporate and contractual matters. In the investor-state arbitration arena, we have handled more than 130 investment arbitrations involving a wide spectrum of legal issues and facts.

In addition to acting in arbitration proceedings, we represent clients in courts around the world in arbitration-related litigation, such as motions to compel arbitration, anti-suit injunctions and enforcement actions.
