Overview

A seasoned business advocate, litigator and trial lawyer with more than three decades of experience, William Hill continuously strives to resolve complex disputes in and out of court throughout the country. William focuses on representation that reflects his perseverance and determination to resolve matters quickly, efficiently and thoroughly.

A Florida Bar Board Certified attorney in Business Litigation, William represents businesses in a variety of industries, such as banking and financial services, behavioral health and health care, technology, real estate, aviation, manufacturing, retail and government. William has also advised large public companies.

William represents clients in complex cases, including class actions and international arbitrations. His experience ranges from commercial disputes of all kinds to intellectual property, real estate, securities, product liability and RICO cases. He also advises clients on a national scale in the area of non-compete enforcement and defense. Over the last decade, his representative matters have included significant recoveries for large corporate clients, resulting in more than $55 million in judgments and pre-trial settlements.

William is committed to practicing with integrity and devising compelling arguments on behalf of clients. His goal is to take complicated issues and distill them into viable, cogent and persuasive positions.

Notably, William clerked for highly respected Judge William Hoeverler of the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida.
