

Larissa Jean (“Laury”) Owens, Esq.
Belle Isle/Orlando, Florida 32812
(407) 731-5622 • owens.larissa.j@gmail.com

Education:

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C.
LLM – Tax, expected graduation December 2025

Florida International University College of Law, Miami, Florida
Juris Doctor, cum laude, December 2022

GPA: 3.28

Extracurricular:

FIU Law Vis Moot Team for International Arbitration
FIU Law Path Mentor

Honors: CALI Excellence for the Future Award – Administrative Law
Dean’s List, 6 semesters

Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida
Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology, magna cum laude, February 2002

GPA: 3.62

Languages:

- Native English
- Full professional Spanish
- Basic Italian (Italian Dual Citizenship pending)

Licenses:

- Florida Licensed Attorney
FBN 1044215
Sections: RPPTL, ILS, Tax, Business, ADR, and Young Lawyers

Professional Memberships:

- Federal Bar Association
- Orange County Bar Association
- Miami International Arbitration Society

Experience:

Anchor Law, P.A.—Orlando/Belle Isle, Florida
ATTORNEY/FOUNDER—May 2023 to present

Solo attorney practicing in the areas of estate planning, probate, guardianship, real estate, small business matters, and associated litigation.

Barrister Law Firm, P.A.—Orlando, Florida
ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY—April 2023 and May 2023

Associate attorney practicing in the areas of estate planning, trust administration, probate, guardianship, real estate, and associated litigation.

Horacio Sosa, P.A.—Davie, Florida
LEGAL INTERN—April 2022 to November 2022

Executed client centered, goal-oriented legal matters efficiently, effectively, and on schedule. This position was part of the required externship for completion of the J.D. Deeply engaged in attorney supervised negotiations, court appearances, legal strategy, and client consultations as well as extensive legal research and trial preparation. The position also included voluminous drafting including complaints, motions, discovery, memorandums of law, and briefs. Additionally, provided coaching to paralegals in probate and guardianship administration.

Tripp Scott, P.A.—Ft. Lauderdale, Florida
PARALEGAL—May 2021 to April 2022

Supported six high volume attorneys in probate, guardianship, trust administration, and associated litigation. Managed cases including drafting and filing pleadings and annual reports, ensuring deadlines compliance, scheduling, evaluating and assessing assets, preparing complex accountings, and extensive legal research.

Dean, Mead, Egerton, Bloodworth, Capouano & Bozarth—Orlando, Florida
PARALEGAL—September 2016 to December 2020

Supported nine high volume attorneys in probate, guardianship, trust administration, and estate tax returns. Managed cases from inception to completion, including drafting pleadings, evaluating and assessing assets, preparing complex accountings, annual reports, estate tax returns.

Forster, Boughman & Lefkowitz—Maitland, Florida

LEAD PARALEGAL, OFFICE MANAGER, AND IT SUPPORT—February 2016 to September 2016

Supervised paralegals and secretaries working for seven attorneys in probate litigation, civil and complex business litigation, contracts, corporate law, credit counseling, foreclosure defense, and probate. Managed litigation cases, including document preparation, deadline compliance, discovery requests, and trial preparation. Managed IT systems. This position was a short-term position for the purpose of assisting the new firm in its establishment.

James E. Shepherd, Esq.—Lake Mary, Florida

PARALEGAL—December 2005 to May 2016

Sole support for general practice attorney. Orchestrated client and case management in civil and business litigation, bankruptcy, credit counseling, collections, foreclosure, loan modifications, landlord/tenant, contracts, probate, estate planning, guardianship, corporate, real estate, title insurance, employment, insurance issues, family law, criminal, and intellectual property. Responsible for administrative and management functions related to the practice as well as drafting, scheduling, and communicating with all relevant parties.

PARALEGAL EXPERIENCE FROM 1996 TO 2005 included additional general practice as well as Plaintiff side PIP and Worker's Comp, Medical Malpractice Defense, and in-house legal support for an aviation support company with a heavy emphasis on contract drafting, review, and compliance.